

Ecuador cracking down on hired assassins

Written by T. Rob Brown (aka Roberto Chocolate)

Tuesday, 22 June 2010 17:21 - Last Updated Tuesday, 22 June 2010 17:22

▣ This article appeared in the Southern Pulse newsletter. Roberto

ECUADOR

According to Ecuadoran prosecutor Antonio Gagliardo, hired assassins can be contracted for between US$400 and US$3,000 over the Internet in Ecuador. 11 percent of 212 cases of homicide in Guayaquil in 2010 have been linked to hired assassins. Ecuador created a special force to deal with the issue in the most violent regions of Guayas, Esmeraldas, Manabí, Pichincha, Los Ríos, and El Oro.